§ 2550.100 Do State entities or their members incur any risk of liability?

(b) Individual liability. A member of the State Commission or AAE shall have no personal liability with respect to any claim arising out of or resulting from any act or omission by that member, within the scope of the service of that member. This does not, however, limit personal liability for criminal acts or omissions, willful or malicious misconduct, acts or omissions for private gain, or any other act or omission outside the scope of the service of that member. Similarly, this part does not limit or alter in any way any other immunities that are available under applicable law for State officials and employees not described in this section; nor does this part affect any other right or remedy against the State or any person other than a member of a State Commission or AAE.

(b) Limitation on Federal share. Notwithstanding the amounts specified in this section, the amount of a grant that may be provided to a State under this subsection, together with other Federal funds available to establish or operate the State Commission or AAE, may not exceed 85 percent of the total cost to establish or operate the State Commission or AAE for the first year for which the State Commission or AAE receives an administrative grant under this section.¹ In subsequent years, the Corporation will establish larger matching requirements for States so that by the fifth and subsequent years of assistance, the Federal share does not exceed 50 percent.
